Letter of recommendation from the recruiting company in 5

Medical insurance valid in Romania, covering one day longer beyond the intended period of stay and of a value not less than 50,000 EUR (original and copy);

Polio vaccination certificate

Step I- Plan your travel and be informed

Be aware about the duration of your overseas stay and plan accordingly

Contact Romanian embassy about import duties or restrictions

Keep all necessary documents with you and a copy with your family

Contact your bank or financial institution about accessing your funds while overseas.

Stay in touch while you travel and contact and register with your embassy

You must ensure that you have already signed a Foreign Service Agreement (FSA)

Your employment contract must contain all necessary details

Check the duration of the job for visa renewal

As a registered overseas worker, you are also insured for 5 years by BEOE. In case of workers' death, 1 million PKR will be given to the family member or in case of serious injury/disability 300,000 PKR will be given to the worker. Please note injury claims may vary and depends upon injury type.

Step II- Prepare yourself and be aware

Tips to prepare yourself and work well;

Take care of your health

Take precautions to avoid sexually transmitted diseases.

Do not consume illegal drugs

Abide by the rules and regulations

Learn the basic norms and laws

Respect the culture and religion

Learn the local language

Be respectful to women

Check expiry date of documents

You can send money back to your family through a bank or money transfer company

You may also directly deposit your earnings into a bank account in Pakistan

Working time, trial/ probationary period and vacations:

- ▶ There are 5 working days in a week (40 hours per week).
- ▶ The trial/probationary period depends on the type of employment agreement:
 - 90 calendar days for execution position
 - 120 calendar days for management position
- ▶ Trial/probationary periods for short term contracts may be agreed upon as long as they do not surpass:
 - 5 work days for a contract shorter than 3 months
 - 15 work days for a contract of 3-6 months
 - 30 work days for a contract longer than 6 months
 - 45 work days for a contract longer than 6 months for employees occupying a management position
- ▶ The employee is entitled, according to the provisions of the labour law, to a minimum of 20 vacation days per year (working days, not calendar days).

Daily workplace safety measures:

Use each piece of equipment for its intended purpose

Wear proper safety equipment, proper uniform / clothes for work

Always keep work areas clean and clear

Use correct posture when lifting an item

Take work breaks from time to time

Tips to fit and adjust to a new working environment

Be friendly and socialise with your coworkers and offer to help

Respect your work culture. It is crucial to be punctual

Ask for feedback whenever you get the chance to, especially during your first several months.

Medical leave

You have the right to take medical leave. But you will need a medical certificate from a doctor and you must inform your employer within two days of being absent. You can avail of the discount and privileges of your health card for treatment and medicines at the specified hospitals and clinics. You have the right to receive your income during a period of illness. Based on your medical report, each year you are entitled to a maximum of 15 days of sick leave with full pay, the next 10 days with three-quarters' pay, the subsequent 10 days with half pay, then another 10 days with quarter pay and the remaining 30 days without pay.

Step III- Protect yourself by knowing your rights and duties

As a registered migrant worker, you have the right to complain and seek protection, if any of your rights are violated. If you think you have been cheated, wronged or treated in a way that discriminates against you because you are not a Romanian or EU citizen, your rights may have been abused. See the contact details at the end of this booklet and seek assistance.

Keep your documents with you all the time

Get a residence permit from your employer

Demand accommodation facilities if they are mentioned in the contract.

You have to be paid once a month, on a working day

You have to be paid for work completed even if you are arrested

If you experience a dispute with the employer regarding non-payment of wages, leave, end-of-service benefits or some other work-related issue, you can contact the Pakistani Embassy in Romania, BEOE (in Pakistan), OPF- recovery of dues and compensation section (<https://www.opf.org.pk/services/foreign-employment-dues-compensation/> and MRCs to guide you in sorting your problem best.

Manage your Remittances:

Moving to a new country can be hard. There are massive cultural differences and simply re-acclimating yourself can prove to be difficult. And money, of course, can be a major point of concern when moving abroad

Open a local bank account

Use online banking

Keep an account open at home
